So they strengthened their hands for this good work. The God of Heaven, He will prosper us; therefore, we His servants, will arise and build. We can imagine such words as these, spoken by those, who, a hundred years ago to-day, met in this City to build up the waste places of their Spiritual Zion. Like that Patriot-Prophet, Nehemiah, they had taken a survey of the desolation of the House of God after the War of the Revolution; and knowing by actual observation what ought to be done, they set themselves to do it, saying one to another, Let us arise and build; and they comforted each other with the assurance, The God of Heaven, He will prosper us. To show how they builded, and with what results, is the object of this discourse. The organization of this Diocese is hut one of a series of acts, which marked the reconstructive effort to build up our branch of the Church in the last century.
