Excerpt: . . . instituted in this city in 1881, has continued its uninterrupted path, progress, advancement and success to this day; our Federation, which has not only helped to organize so large a number of our fellow-workmen into unions; which has not only secured economic and material improvement in their condition, but has obtained legislative and administrative action, national, State and municipal; our Federation, which has sown the seed of unity, fraternity and solidarity, by and through which the workers have a better sense of their duty to help them bear each others burdens; to realise that in the advancement of their brothers good they themselves are largely interested and advanced for their own good. We are proud, too, of the fact of having so nurtured and cultivated the general public mind that it has a better and higher conception of the rights and interests of the...
